

Texas Claims & Consulting Company
Ted Marules, Sr.
Accident Reconstruction Training & Experience

Thirty-three years overall experience (1973-2006) in the investigation, evaluation, negotiation and settlement of automobile, truck, motorcycle, bicycle and pedestrian accidents including;

Thirty-three years experience (1973-2006) as a licensed Casualty, Property, Commercial, Workers Compensation, Fire and Allied claims adjuster. All Lines Adjuster License # 204568

Accident Reconstruction Training & Certification at Texas A & M University, College Station, Texas. Instructed by Charles R. Kenner and Patrick D. Dalager. 30 Classroom hours plus home study. Certificate of completion awarded. 1983

Accident Reconstruction Training & Certification at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois. Instructed by Thad Aycock, Jennifer White and Jim Sneddon. 120 total classroom hours plus a minimum of 60 hours home study. Final exams passed and Certificates awarded. 1994, 1996

Accident Reconstruction Low Speed Impact Analysis at Forensic Technologies International, Annapolis, Maryland. Instructed by Dr. Ian Jones and Al Cipriani. 14 classroom hours. 1994.

Accident Reconstruction Home Study Training by The Institute of Police Technology and Management (IPTM) University of North Florida, Jacksonville, Florida. Manual by Robert A. DuBois. Approximately 40 hours home study.

Accident Reconstruction and Related Topics presented by The Insurance Institute for Highway Safety, Arlington, Virginia.

Related Accident Topics presented by The National Safety Council.

Related Accident Reconstruction Topics presented in reference texts, videotapes and manuals for home study.